Q1. Are the objects outlined in section 4 of the Act still valid? What changes, if any, should be made?

N/A

Q3. What do you think about the principles? Are they appropriate for older adults and adults with disability?

Adults with disabilities have the right to determine their own carer, if needed.

Q4. Are there any changes required to the appointment process or the status of the Commissioner?

The Commissioner should either have a disability or have been a carer.

Q5. Are the functions of the Commissioner suitable and appropriate to achieve the objectives of the Act?

Neglect can often be unintentional, particularly if elderly parents are carers, and no longer capable.

Q6. Should the Commissioner have discretion in deciding which reports to refer to the bodies in sections 13(8) and 13(9) of the Act?

N/A

Q7. In what circumstances should the Commissioner be able to investigate an allegation without the consent of the relevant adult?

If the relevant adult does not have the means to independently participate in an investigation.

Q8. Should an exemption from the requirement to obtain consent, similar to the one in South Australian legislation, be included in the Act?

N/A

Q9. Are the Commissioner's information sharing powers appropriate and sufficient to achieve the objectives of the Act?

N/A

Q10. Should the Act enable the Commissioner to share information with the organisations and individuals listed in paragraph 3.28? Are there any others?

N/A

Q11. Are the Commissioner's investigation and public inquiry powers appropriate and sufficient to achieve the objectives of the Act?

N/A

Q12. Should the Act clarify the scope of the Commissioner's authority to manage the performance of OCVs and the grounds of removal for OCVs?

N/A

Q13. Should OCVs be permitted to provide advice and information to the NDIS Commission and Department of Communities and Justice, to improve regulation of the disability services sector and assisted boarding houses?

yes

Q14. Should disability service providers be required to give information about new or changes to existing visible services they operate to the ADC? If so, what information should the providers be required to give?

N/A

Q15. Should the ADC Act be amended to provide flexibility for alignment of the NSW OCVs with a nationally consistent CVS which may be subsequently agreed by the Disability Reform Ministers' Council, including the potential for volunteer visitors as per some other state schemes?

N/A

Q17. Are the matters the Commissioner is required to include in their annual reports appropriate?

N/A

Q18. Should the Commissioner be required to continue reporting on the outcome of each referral to other agencies?

N/A

Q19. Is the role and membership of the Ageing and Disability Board appropriate and sufficient to achieve the objectives of the Act?

N/A

Q20. Do you have any other comments about the Act that you would like to raise?
