Inclusion and exclusion criteria

Inclusion criteria

- References from high-income countries with English language publications
- Interventions administered in school settings
- Interventions targeting youth aged 10-24
- Crime prevention and diversion programs and services delivered by youth workers or youth work organisations
- Interventions supporting unemployed youth focused on the socioeconomic conditions associated with unemployment including access to training and education
- Interventions for youth transitioning from foster or state care
- Interventions including the provision of material goods (e.g. brokerage)

Exclusion criteria

- Personal youth work career reflections (professional and personal)
- Teacher-led interventions or interventions administered by the Department of Education
- Interventions administered in hospital, medical or clinical settings
- Interventions administered in residential care settings
- Mandated interventions
- Interventions targeting families of vulnerable young people in conjunction with the young person (e.g. Triple P)
- Interventions that include the provision of accommodation alongside other 'youth work' services (e.g. transitional or crisis accommodation)
- Sources published pre-2010 (note, this date range does not apply to sources regarding history and identified key texts in youth work literature)
- The following types/formats of grey literature: blog entries, brochures, online toolkits/websites, and brief webpage program profiles and case studies (note, this does not apply for submissions received from youth organisations)
- Youth work career reflections (professional and personal)
- Policy submissions and briefings
- Philosophical, reflective 'think piece' articles about youth work and neoliberalism
