

Victims Services

Service complaints form

You can use this form to provide feedback about:

- The services provided by Victims Services
- Victims Services Approved Counsellors.

Please note if you're making a complaint about an Approved Counsellor, Victims Services is unable to investigate complaints of a clinical nature.

Complaints of a criminal nature will be referred to NSW Police and other relevant reporting agencies.

We view your feedback as an opportunity to improve our practices and service delivery. We review all complaints and aim to resolve complaints promptly and effectively.

Privacy notice

1. Your information is being collected and held by Victims Services so that Victims Services can take steps to resolve your complaint, including investigating and following up on your complaint.
2. You may access or amend the information you provide to Victims Services at any time.
3. Your information and identity may be disclosed to the person about whom the complaint is being made, to enable a fair investigation and appropriate outcome.
4. Your information and identity may be disclosed to professional standards bodies such as the Health Care Complaints Commission, or the NSW Police for investigation.
5. Your information and identity may be disclosed if required by law or legal process, such as subpoena or warrant.
6. You are not obligated by law to provide the details requested, however if you do not provide complete and accurate details then it will not be possible to keep you up to date about the complaint. It will also not be possible to investigate the complaint, as our investigation procedure requires that both parties be given a fair opportunity to respond, and have the necessary information to do so.
