

Charter of Victims Rights

Complaint form

You have a right to make a complaint if you believe that any NSW department, or any person (excluding private legal officers and medical practitioners) or non-government agency funded by the State to provide services to victims of crime has not acted in accordance with the Charter of Victims Rights.

The first step is to contact the department directly unless you do not feel comfortable to do so. If you are unsure whether your complaint relates to a Charter issue, there is the full version of the Charter of Victims Rights available on the Victims Services website.

Please note that if you have charter complaints against multiple organisations, one complaint form is required for each organisation.

Privacy notice: Victims Services is collecting the information that you provide on this form for the purpose of investigating complaints in relation to the Charter of Victims Rights. The details of your complaint will only be disclosed to the agency or contractor that you are making the complaint against with your consent. If you do not consent, we can note your concerns, but will not take any action. Victims Services will collate non-identifying data arising from this complaint to use for reporting and identifying trends.
